which have been printed in THE HEBREW STUDENT, are well adapted to fix the outline of the history in the mind of the reader. There is no more profitable work than the study of biblical character, and the present volume will do much to incite such study. The lives of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob are written by the REV. W. HANNA, D. D.; those of Joseph and Moses by the REV. CANON NORRIS, B. D.

Many letters of inquiry concerning Delitzsch's Hebrew New Testament have been received by the editor. He would refer all who desire to purchase it to F. G. Thearle, 151 Wabash Avenue, Chicago, who has a large supply on hand.

JUNE ANNOUNCEMENTS.

1. At the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, held at Springfield, Ill., fifty names were added to the members of the Progressive Course of the Correspondence School. Among these were the names of several missionaries, one in Siam, two in China, one in Brazil, S. A., one in Portugal. At the General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church held at Monmouth, Ill., thirty names were added to the roll. These do not begin work until September 1st.

2. Many thanks are due those members who have so freely returned their copies of Lessons I—X. A careful record is kept, and in each case the new lessons will be sent back as soon as reprinted.

3. The "Elements" is coming on rapidly. At the present rate we hope to finish it by August 1st. If the members will but exercise patience, the end will come.

4. It is desired to call the attention of the School to the "Instructors," "Lecturers" and "Schedule of Work" of the Summer School, July 11th—Aug. 19th, (See page 18).

5. All examination papers received to date have been returned, except three, to which no name is appended.

6. Will you not oblige the Instructor by filling out the blank "Reports of Progress" and returning them promptly.
